

FAIRCAPE GROUP E-MAIL DISCLAIMER

The terms and conditions of this Disclaimer apply to all e-mail communications and attachments (collectively referred to as the "Communication") that the Faircape Group ("Faircape") may send a recipient.

The integrity of the Communication sent across the Internet cannot be guaranteed and messages sent via this medium are potentially at risk. The recipient should scan any attached files for viruses as well as verify that the e-mail address of the sender is legitimate. All liability arising as a result of the use of this medium to transmit information by or to Faircape is excluded to the extent permitted by law. Faircape assumes no responsibility or liability which may arise from any attempt to gain unauthorised access to this account through hacking or otherwise. Faircape gives no warranty that this Communication is free of viruses. Faircape shall not be liable for any harm or loss resulting from malicious software code or viruses in this Communication, including data corruption resulting there from.

The information contained in this Communication is confidential and may contain proprietary and/or personal information. It is meant solely for the intended recipient. Access to this Communication by anyone else is unauthorised.

If you are not the intended recipient (or such person's authorised representative), any processing of the Communication or the information contained therein (including printing, forwarding, disclosing, copying, distributing, storing) or any action taken or omitted in reliance on this, is strictly prohibited and may be unlawful. Please notify Faircape of this Communication immediately by return e-mail, facsimile or telephone and delete the Communication from your system. The sender does not intend to waive confidentiality or privilege.

No liability or responsibility is accepted by Faircape:

- Should any of the information or data in the Communication be, for whatever reason, corrupted;
- Should the Communication not reach its intended recipient;
- For any delay in the receipt of this Communication; and/or
- Should this Communication contain derogatory, offensive or defamatory statements or materials. If this Communication contains such items it means that the Communication has been sent outside of the sender's scope of employment with Faircape and only the sender can be held liable in his/her personal capacity.

Any advice or information contained in this Communication is further subject to any governing agreement between Faircape and the intended recipient. Only duly authorised staff acting within the scope of their authority are able to bind Faircape contractually. Unless expressly indicated as such, nothing in this Communication shall constitute an offer, warranty or representation from Faircape.

E-mails sent to Faircape shall only be regarded as having been received by Faircape once Faircape expressly acknowledges receipt thereof. Faircape shall be deemed to have sent an e-mail once the e-mail has reflected as sent on Faircape's e-mail server.
